

Apprenticeship Opportunity: Community Engagement Apprentice with Sick Cells (Sickle Cell Patient Advocacy Organization)

Sick Cells is hiring a community engagement apprentice to raise the profile of the organization and promote our programs. This position will work closely with the Sick Cells leadership team and report to the Programs Manager.

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Sick Cells is a nonprofit whose mission is to improve the quality of life and care for people living with sickle cell disease (SCD), including ending the stigma of SCD. Our approach includes shaping public policy, and creatively educating the SCD community and society overall.

To these ends, Sick Cells is working to:

1. Elevate the voices of the patients and the entire SCD community,
2. Highlight the grave challenges and disparities this community faces,
3. Unite and empower the sickle cell disease community to effectively self-advocate.

APPRENTICESHIP DETAILS

This position is a part-time, paid apprenticeship of 10-15 hours per week. Apprentice will be provided a stipend of $500 a month. The position is three months long with the option for renewal based on performance reviews and Sick Cells capacity needs.

As an apprentice, you will be part of a team that is shaping the public discourse on sickle cell disease and closing the information gap for this population. This is a unique opportunity to gain insight into the operation of a startup nonprofit, while contributing to public awareness and knowledge of one of the most misunderstood diseases in the world.

As an apprentice, you will develop skills in community engagement, fundraising, Microsoft software, Sprout Social Media Platform, Mailchimp Email Generator, Slack, Canva, business development, and communications.
